Walker awarded 2010 Gary Walker Scholarship to attend prestigious nation trial academy

Ellis Lawhorne is pleased to announce that Breon Walker has been awarded the 2010 Gary Walker Memorial Scholarship to attend the International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC) Trial Academy at the Stanford Law School in California later this summer. The IADC Trial Academy is one of the oldest and most well respected programs for developing defense trial advocacy skills. This scholarship is awarded annually to one minority and/or female attorney in the country. Walker's selection was based on her qualifications and letters of recommendation.

Walker is a member of the Ellis Lawhorne Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice Group, where she focuses her practice on defense litigation. Prior to joining Ellis Lawhorne, Walker practiced in both the civil and criminal divisions of the South Carolina Office of the Attorney General. She earned her juris doctor from Emory University School of Law in 2003. She is a member of the South Carolina Bar and the Richland County Bar Association.
